

HANK and my HONKY TONK HERBOES

“The kid’s a hit!

If you weren’t a Hank Williams fan when you walked in . . . you were when you walked out.”

—Tom Uhlenbrock, St. Louis Dispatch

This nostalgic look at Hank Williams and his influence on country music is amazing! Don’t miss Jason’s Obie award-winning performance as he brings Hank’s music back to life in this insightful, energetic show.

Jason also pays tribute to those who influenced Hank and those Hank influenced. Some of these artists include: Jimmie Rodgers, Roy Acuff, Ernest Tubb, The Carter Family, George Jones, Webb Pierce and more. This show is a MUST-SEE for all country music fans!

Jason Petty does a remarkably good job of rendering Williams’ famous melodies with the silky warble and sob that recreate their touching simplicity. He’s also a good actor who can get across . . . an alcoholic’s devotion to the bottle and the impatience of a young genius.

Mr. Petty rises to the occasion time after time.

—Bruce Weber, New York Times

Jason Petty

“A SOLD OUT show and an outstanding performance. We were blown away with Jason’s show. He had the audience in the palm of his hand . . . laughing, crying, singing out loud. We could have sold out 2 or 3 more shows with him. We definitely want him back!”

—Linda Leos,
Coordinator for the Charleston
Heights Arts Center, Las Vegas, NV

“It was like I was transported back in time to when I was playing with the original Hank. He’s that good. He’s got the look, the charm, the wit . . . and most of all . . . he’s got the voice and the talent. Every music fan will love this show!”

—Don Helms, Original member of the Hank Williams’ band

“I was surprised . . . even stunned . . . by Petty’s forceful, clear-eyed and moving depiction of Williams.

The result is the exhilarating feeling of Williams on stage in a particular place on a particular night . . . a rare achievement.”

—Anthony DeCurtis, Rolling Stone Magazine

“Petty galvanizes the show. His voice wails and rails a mixture of country and blues that electrifies the house! Hank Williams is alive and well and singing sensationally!”

—Micheal Kuchwara, Associated Press

“I can’t think of a better show and a more positive response from our audiences. Jason brought the house down. That crowd would have stayed all night and then some to listen to him. He’s not only a great singer, but an enchanting and emotional storyteller. What a great show! We want him back!”

—Dee Adrian, Event Coordinator for Capitol Centre, North Bay, ON, Canada

Jason Petty has made a striking impression on New York’s Theatre District, starring in ‘Hank Williams: Lost Highway,’ which played to sold out audiences at the Little Shubert Theater. Audiences and critics alike were taken aback by Petty’s amazing acting ability in his portrayal of Hank Williams.

He won rave reviews from all the major critics, including the New York Times, Variety and Rolling Stone and won the Obie Award for “Outstanding Actor.”

This veteran actor and singer began portraying the country music legend, Hank Williams, in 1996 at the world famous Ryman Auditorium in Nashville Tennessee. Since that time, Petty appeared in national tours of “Lost Highway” and “Hank and My Honky Tonk Heroes.”
